

Nina Amoo

Background:

Nina Amoo is an organisational culture change and inclusion specialist; she specialises in coaching and developing an engaged, high-performing workforce and creating inclusive places of work.

Nina works with several award-winning management and inclusion consultancies such as EW Group, Dearden HR, CMP Solutions and Mahogany Inclusion Partners, In addition to her own clients.

Primarily focused on programs of change involving transformational and inclusive people-focused solutions within large public, third and private sector organisations, Nina is also one half of the Diversity Collective-delivering DEI solutions to SME's that are unable to access support from larger consultancies.

The Collective also provides a masterclass for HR Professionals tasked with supporting their organisations to become more inclusive.

Last but not least, Nina is the founder of the rapidly growing brand Ankara on Brand (AoB) and a Board Member of Applied Live Arts Studio.

Coaching Experience

Nina has been coaching and mentoring Executives, Senior leaders and middle management throughout her HR and consultancy career particularly on performance and career progression. She is currently mentors via the Black Leadership in Further Education Group. Nina also coaches HR professionals and consultants on conflict resolution, mediation and embedding transformational culture change solutions within their respective organisations, often following a deep dive review or audit of a service or function.

Nina enjoys 1:1 or group coaching and facilitation and can design mentoring and coaching programmes of support.

Areas of Expertise:

Professional and Personal development
Organisational Culture change including Diagnostics, Audits and Deep Dive and people focused solutions
Collaborative leadership development
Inclusive Cultures
Conflict Resolution
Establishing and Leading effective Employee Resource Groups and Networks
Training programme design and delivery
Action Learning Sets

Education & Professional Certification

Certified Workplace Coach
Chartered Member of the CIPD
Certified Independent Association of Facilitators
Independent Investigator
MSc Strategic Human Resource Management
BA Human Resource Management & Law